

Dear Minister Ploumen,

‘Each of the members of NpM, Platform for Inclusive Finance, supports the joint efforts of greening the Inclusive Finance sector and commits to including greening the inclusive finance activities in its policy and practice. The members believe that by doing so, the inclusive finance activities contribute to economic development as well as reduction of carbon emissions, climate smart adaptation, and protection of biodiversity while strengthening local entrepreneurship and local communities. NpM members support (inter)national development organisations and financial institutions that contribute to greening the Inclusive Finance sector, to develop business cases, successful partnerships, guidelines and indicators, directly and through their joint activities orchestrated by NpM’.

